JAP ADS PVT LTD
PRESENTS

The objective of the one-day workshops, designed for those with or without filmmaking experience, is to provide one-of-a-kind learning opportunity for participants by equipping them with the basic and essential knowledge and skills to pursue career options in films both as directors and actors.

The workshops aim at not only familiarizing participants with emerging trends in digital film-making including production and post-production, but also empowering them as effective story-tellers in different movie genres.

Participants will have the benefit of learning the rudiments of film craft by interacting with eminent personalities who made their mark in the film industry in various capacities. We are going to bring together some of the best creative film directors and technicians who will provide insights and perspectives on various aspects of film-making.
